RED RIVER VALLEY HONORS CAMP

DRESS CODE

Parents: Please read, sign, and mail the bottom of this form with the camp application!

Campers (and parents) are required to exercise discretion and modesty regarding the selection of camper's clothing. Christian young people can hurt their testimony and possibly offend others by the clothing they wear and the way in which it is worn. Outfits, which are too tight, too short, or offensively imprinted, although not intentionally worn to be provocative, nonetheless often are. As such, they are not honoring to the Lord, and should be avoided. With this in mind, the following dress code will be used at Honors Camp.

Girls

- All shirts and blouses must have sleeves.
- Halter-tops, bare-midriff, or tightly form fitting clothing are not allowed.
- Shorts are acceptable, but must be no shorter than three (3) inches above the knee (approximately the width of a dollar bill above the knee). Shorts must also be of the loose fitting “walking shorts” variety and not split-sided jogging shorts, or “spandex” style bicycle shorts alone or under other shorts.
- Dresses must be at least the same length as the shorts described above.
- T-shirts and other garments with “worldly writing or language” are not allowed.
- Swimwear—one-piece with full front lining is preferred. A tankini style two-piece suit that completely covers the midriff area, with full front lining is acceptable. Both must meet the following guidelines: No cut-offs, plunging necklines, and/or high-cut leg openings are allowed. A cover shirt must be worn to and from the pool.

Boys

- T-shirts and other garments with “worldly writing or language” are not allowed.
- All shirts must have sleeves.
- Shorts are acceptable, but must be no shorter than three (3) inches above the knee (approximately the width of a dollar bill above the knee). Shorts must also be of the loose fitting “walking shorts” variety and not split-sided jogging shorts, or “spandex” style bicycle shorts alone or under other shorts.
- Race-type swimwear (tank suit) is not allowed. No cut-offs are allowed in the pool. A cover shirt must be worn to and from the pool.

This dress code is not intended to be “heavy-handed” or restrictive, but it is for the purpose of avoiding any problems before they start. If there is any question about any article(s) of clothing, the camper's counselor will speak to him/her about it privately. In all cases, the Camp Commander's word will be final.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR COOPERATION —WE APPRECIATE IT!

PARENTS: Please sign below:

I have completely read and understand the information above. I will make sure my son/daughter will have all the clothes for the eight days of camp and adhere to the dress code above.

Signature of parent or guardian

This form must be signed before a cabin will be assigned. Thank you.
If you have any questions, please feel free to contact your Camp Commander.

Optional Theme T-shirt

Note: If you are a Super Senior (just graduated from high school) you need to order this specially designed “theme” t-shirt!

Each year we choose a camp theme, design a theme logo, and offer an optional “theme” t-shirt at additional cost. This is in addition to the complimentary “team” t-shirt (JH, HS/R, B, G, Y) everyone already receives. Our theme this year is “OUR AMAZING GOD” and Jeremiah 24:7, “I will give them a heart to know me, that I am the LORD. They will be my people, and I will be their God, for they will return to me with all their heart” is the key verse. (See below)

The size you order is the size we will give you (no exchanges unless you find someone to trade with) and the price is $10 if paid (postmarked) by May 1 or is $13 if paid after May 1. If you order a “theme” t-shirt, please add this amount to your payment for your application/registration and complete and return the following information:

Parents,

As your child looks forward to another year at Red River Valley Honor Camp, we'd like to introduce ourselves. We're Youth Missions International (YMI), a subsidiary and official mission mobilization arm of Awana.

We have been invited by camp leadership over the past three years to be part of your child's camp experience. At camp we provide practical, peer-to-peer evangelism training and practice. If your child chooses, they will attend a class each day to prepare them for an authentic ministry experience off campus where they will lead ministry as a team.

Camp leadership has valued the impact of our training and experiences so much, they have invited us back again. After the camp outreach, we'll present different mission trips to the campers as a way for them to continue growing in their faith and being a witness. We invite you to take part in your child's decision should they want to go on mission. As their parent, you are their primary influence and advocate, and we value your involvement in their trip.

Carroll Wherry, Awana Missionary to Arkansas, had this to say about his mission trip to Zambia:

In 2014, the Lord prompted me with an invitation at camp to lead a YMI mission experience. So I did, attending a mission training in Texas just weeks later. July 2015 landed our team in Lusaka, Zambia for two solid weeks of ministry extraordinaire. Of my 6 missions experiences this was the most fulfilling, with well-trained teammates making the difference.

Check out our website to learn more about what we do and how we partner with camp ministry to help your child take the next step in following Jesus. To read about the history and impact of YMI, you can go to www.trainleaders.org; for more info on our mission trip training and locations, go to www.missiondifferently.com. We'd love to stay in contact with you and answer any questions you might have. You can reach me directly at (866) 487-7563 x4, or gene@ymimissions.org.

Looking forward to another year of camp,

Gene Hunt
