WHAT TO EXPECT:

- Air conditioned buildings!
- Beautifully laid out campground

Share a cabin with other campers your own age and friendly Christian counselors.

Bible lessons, verse memorization, and chapel services add personal spiritual growth and service training to your life.

Build lasting relationships, have fun, and gain spiritual growth.

Jr. High and High School Campers have separate Bible lessons, memory verses, and team competition all week. (9th to 12th graders have extra late night activities.)

Special missions training offered through Youth Missions International, preparing teens to use their spiritual gifts for short term missions outreach. www.ymissions.org

Camper can request one cabin-mate in the same gender/age/grade level.

AGE REQUIREMENT QUALIFICATIONS:

All campers must meet the following age requirements:

Sixth grade through Junior High Campers must be at least 10 years old and High School Campers must be at least 13 years old by the first day of camp. There are two categories of eligible campers: Honor Camper and Camper.

Honor Camper:

First year Honor Campers are those who have earned an Awana Excellence, Timothy, Meritorious, or Citation Award, within the past two years, as verified by their local Awana Director. A returning Honor Camper must complete the next Awana handbook/manual in the current handbook progression. Honor Campers will receive special recognition throughout the week of camp.

Camper:

All other campers who want to spend a week with their peers learning more about God, and competing in a week long competition including Bible memorization, quizzing, and some incredible games that you won't find anywhere else. All campers are encouraged to return as an Honor camper for future camps by completing the next Awana handbook/manual in the current handbook progression.

ALL WORK MUST BE COMPLETED BEFORE CAMP.

Camper must commit to the entire week.
